

Col. Noell Dies; War II Draft Official

Col. Joseph D. Noell Jr., 56, an administrative official with the Central Intelligence Agency, died of pneumonia Sunday at Doctors Hospital. He lived at 3717 Corey pl. nw.

A native of Richmond, he lived here most of his life and in the years before World War II worked for the Selective Service System. During the war he headed the section of Selective Service's national headquarters which was responsible for draft quotas and calls.

He later was commanding officer of Selective Service Mobilization Detachment No. 20 and, during his World War II service, rose from first lieutenant to full colonel. He held the Legion of Merit.

Col. Noell attended St. Albans School here and the Evans School in Tucson before his graduation with distinction from the University of Virginia.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, and a son, Joseph D. Noell III.

NOELL, JOSEPH D., JR.

On Sunday, February 17, 1963, at Doctors Hospital, JOSEPH D. NOELL JR., of 3717 Corey pl. nw., husband of Elizabeth Morris Noell; father of Joseph D. Noell III. Friends may call at Gawler's Chapel, Wisconsin ave. at Harrison st. nw. (parking on premises). Services will be held at St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Wisconsin and Massachusetts aves. nw., on Wednesday, February 20, at 2:15 p. m. Burial Arlington National Cemetery.